

“We used to hate and destroy
one another and refused to associate with people
of another race or country.
Now, because of Christ,
we live together with such people and pray for our enemies.”

St. Justin Martyr

“O God of spirits and of all flesh, You trampled death and broke the power of the devil and granted life to Your world. Now grant rest, O Lord, to the soul of Your departed servants in a place of light, joy, and peace where there is no pain, sorrow, nor mourning.”

— From the Litany for the Deceased

■ Today’s Commemorations — Today is the Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost. On this date, September 24, the Byzantine Church commemorates St. Thekla, a disciple and companion of the Apostle Paul in the first century. She is given the title “Equal-to-the-Apostles” because she accompanied St. Paul in founding churches and because her witness converted so many others to Christ. She was the first woman martyr for the Christian Faith. For her life story, visit http://www.antiiochian.org/life_of_thekla.

■ Day of Abstinence — Friday, September 29, is a day of simple abstinence in the Byzantine Church. One may abstain from meat or perform an appropriate act of penance.

Our community...

was established in October 1996 to meet the spiritual needs of Byzantine Catholics living in northern Montgomery County, southern Frederick County, and adjoining areas.

We celebrate our faith...

in a diverse community. We welcome all, regardless of ethnic or religious background who are committed to develop a deeper understanding of the Christian faith expressed in the Byzantine tradition and spirituality, and who wish to pray and work towards the full communion of the Catholic and Orthodox Churches as sister Churches of the One Universal Church of Jesus Christ.

We continually resolve...

to gather in His Name, share the truth of our Faith, and proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ to everyone.

Please Remember

"Is anyone among you sick? ...the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up."

Pray for Our Community

Food Pantry

Our community places a food collection basket near the information table as you enter the gymnasium. Don't forget those who are less fortunate. Nonperishable food items, diapers, baby food, and personal care items are always in demand. The Food Pantry Program, administered by St. Martin of Tours Roman Catholic Church in Gaithersburg, supports the working poor of our area.

"...for I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited me; I was in prison and you came to Me. ...Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me."

Matthew 25:35-36, 40 NKJV/OSB

"O God, our God, You came to Cana in Galilee and blessed the marriage there; now bless Your servants who through Your Providence were united in marriage and who now offer thanksgiving to You for all the good things which they have received from You in their years of marriage. Bless the daily course of their life; fill their life with good things; and accept their crowns into Your Kingdom, keeping them pure, blameless, and above reproach forever."

— From the Byzantine Ritual of Marriage

■ Women's Retreat — A retreat for women of the Eparchy of Passaic will be held October 27 and 28 at St. Mary Villa at the Sister Servants of Mary Immaculate, Sloatsburg, N.Y.

Titled "God has gifted me for His work: A gently guided retreat for women in an atmosphere of tranquility and peace," the retreat will be facilitated by Julie V. Burke, D.Min., Adjunct Professor of Pastoral Theology at Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology, Seton Hall University. For more information, contact Diane Rabiej at the Chancery, 973-890-7777 or Dr. Maureen Dadonna, 516-623-6456.

■ Divine Liturgy at Mount St. Mary — The Divine Liturgy for the Feast of the Holy and Glorious Apostle St. Andrew will again be celebrated at Mount St. Mary Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland, at 4 p.m. on November 30, the feast of the Apostle.

Fr. Lee will concelebrate the Liturgy with various Byzantine Catholic clergy. The Seminary Schola (choir) will lead the responses, and several seminarians will assist at the altar. All are welcome to attend.

■ Smithsonian Religious Exhibit — The National Museum of American History has opened a new exhibition, "Religion in Early America," which celebrates the free exercise of religion eventually codified in the First Amendment of the Federal Constitution. The exhibit contains items from various faiths from the 1630s to the 1840s. The Catholic display includes the iron cross made of ballast beams forged by the blacksmith for the Catholic colony of Maryland in 1634. Also attracting attention is the chalice used by Archbishop John Carroll, S.J., the first Catholic bishop of the United States and cousin of Charles Carroll, the only Catholic signer of the Declaration of Independence. The chalice is unique in that it disassembles to be made into a saddle bell. Such chalices were used by Catholic priests when Catholicism was persecuted in English Colonial America.

The exhibition runs until June 3, 2018. It can be viewed online at americanhistory.si.edu/religion-in-early-america.

■ Pray for Our Suffering Church — Many Christian clergy, religious, and laity have been killed by Islamic radicals. Please pray for all those afflicted by these barbaric acts and for the conversion and forgiveness of the perpetrators. Glory to Jesus Christ! Glory forever!
