EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation. Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist. We follow the command of Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) are imparted at the same time immediately following baptism.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechumenate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. They will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions—to begin the Pre-Nuptial Questionnaire, to take FOCCUS, a communication, values, and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the Pre-Nuptial Questionnaire, and for a session on the Theology of the Mystery (Sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana Conference.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM to 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) at other scheduled times. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Week. Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life-endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of confession at church or home where there is more privacy.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life-threatening medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the Sacrament of Penance and Anointing of the Sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church or at your home rather than the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance for interruption. If you are unable to come to church or are at the hospital, family members should contact the rectory so Father can anoint at the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacons on Sundays and at other time by arrangement. Please contact the deacons or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery are two portions of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see Deacon Peter Turko.

George Dobes, Ed Gubanich, Caroline Zurun, John Vernoski, Marge Rusnak, Steve Seman, Damon Seman, Jack Figel, Jessica Polink, John Anthon, Kimberly Snow, Mike Hancher, Michael Maskarinec, Michael Hamas, and Michele Horosko. Please pray for these relatives and friends of our parishioners: Eileen Gray, Mike Shuster, Greg Starr, Florence Kunder, Kelly Kunder, Francine O’Leary, Russell Plasha, Margaret Hospodar, John Ryaby III, Guillermina Donalson, Steve Smith, Caleb Joseph Lugo, *Mary Catherine Bishop, Samuel Gaush, Joshua Bacigalupi, Dr. John Feola, Lisa Fazio Rhodes, and Jayden Ramos Jimenez.

Prayers for our Parishioners. The particular Law of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church directs that “the pastor is to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sundays and days of precept (holydays of obligation) (canon 294). This liturgy intention for parishioners is “For the Intention of Parishioners.” The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue to pray for our parishioners by several parishioners in our daily prayers each week. This week please remember parishioners Matthew Sayen, Nicole Sayen, Gerald Schalestock, Mark and Cathy Schott, Donald and Deborah Scipioni, Damon Seman, Sophia Seman, and from the Mission, Tonja Siemucha.

Meat-Fare Sunday. Meat-fare Sunday according to the traditional fast was the last day that meat was consumed until Easter. The Church Slavonic name, Mjasopustnaja (Meat dismissal) is reflected in the Latin word Carnevale, that is, carne (meat) vale (farewell), or carnival. This Sunday is also called the Sunday of the Last Judgment because the gospel from Matthew 25 part of a long passage in which the Lord Jesus speaks about the end of the universe and His Second Coming. The portion that is appointed to be read is about the Final Judgment in which every person will pass judgment on themselves based on their relation with and treatment of Jesus Christ. The prayers of the Lenten Triodion for this Sunday are a lengthy reflection on the frightful moment when each person will have to stand in judgment before the King. During the week, Wednesday and Friday are days when the Divine Liturgy is not observed and the Lenten order of Vespers and Matins is prayed to gradually prepare for the Great Fast.

All Souls Saturdays. There are five All Souls Saturday’s year, when our deceased relatives are remembered by name. This list, the Hramoty or Dyptychs, is read during a Panachida which follows the Divine Liturgy for the repose of our family members. If you have not already done so, please use the envelope in your envelope sets to list your departed names. The second All Souls Saturday is Saturday, March 15. The following three are March 22nd, March 29th, and June 7th.

Liturgy Offerings for the Departed. This Sunday, the gospel of the Last Judgment is read. We hear the Lord’s words: “Whatever you do to these least of my brothers, you do to me.” Certainly, the least of the Lord's brethren are the souls of the departed, who after all, can no longer help themselves. We remember our departed in the five All Souls Saturdays. However, other brethren who need help are our priests in the Eparchy of Mukachevo who do not receive a salary but subsist on Divine Liturgy stipends. As you have done in the past, could you also consider offering Divine Liturgies for the souls of your departed family members and send the stipends to the Eparchy of Passaic which will send them to the priests of the Eparchy of Mukachevo. In this way you will assist you departed and, at the same time help our priests and their families as well as the refugees from other parts of Ukraine who they are helping from their own money and food. For information, please see: <https://www.eparchyofpassaic.com/files/Stipend-Request-Letter-2023.pdf> or contact the parish office.
