EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD Byzantine Catholic Church

The Sacraments – Our Life in Christ

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation. Baptism, Chrismation, Holy Eucharist. We follow the command of the Lord to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). Chrismation (Confirmation) and Holy Eucharist (First Holy Communion) are imparted at the same time immediately following baptism.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Infants – is scheduled at the Divine Liturgy on Saturdays or Sundays during the year except certain fast periods. Sponsors must be Catholics in good standing and supply a sponsor card attesting to that from their parish. While two Catholics in good standing is usual, one baptized non-Catholic can function as a Christian Witness with the Catholic sponsor. Both must be at least sixteen years of age. Details are available at the parish office.

Mysteries (Sacraments) of Initiation of Adults – follows a period of catechumenate. This is a period of spiritual formation. Please see the priest or deacon.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Crowning in Marriage – According to the Pastoral Policy and Guidelines for Marriage Preparation for the Catholic Church in New Jersey, couples wishing to marry must inform the pastor one year before the date of the wedding and be free to marry in the Catholic Church. They will meet with the priest and deacon in four sessions—to begin the Pre-Nuptial Questionnaire, to take FOCCUS, a communication, values, and religious inventory approved for use in the Catholic dioceses/eparchies, to complete the Pre-Nuptial Questionnaire, and for a session on the Theology of the Mystery (Sacrament). They are also required to attend Pre-Cana Conference.

Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance – The Mystery (Sacrament) of Repentance is regularly available each Saturday 11:30 AM to 12:00 Noon. In addition, confessions are heard during the Christmas Fast (Advent) and the Great Fast (Lent) at other scheduled times. Visiting confessors are also scheduled at special times during the Great Fast. Confessions are also heard on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Great and Holy Week. Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life-endangering medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of confession at church or home where there is more privacy.

Anointing of the Sick – Parishioners who are seriously ill and those with life-threatening medical conditions as well as those who are to undergo surgery should avail themselves of the Sacrament of Penance and Anointing of the Sick. If surgery is scheduled, please consider confession and anointing at the church or at your home rather than the hospital since there is more privacy for confession and less chance for interruption. If you are unable to come to church or are at the hospital, family members should contact the rectory so Father can anoint at the hospital.

Holy Communion and Visitation of the Sick – Holy Communion is brought to our parishioners who are ill at the hospital or at home by the deacons on Sundays and at other time by arrangement. Please contact the deacons or the rectory office by Friday prior to the Sunday communion visitation.

Funeral Services – The Office of Christian Burial is offered in ways to accommodate the needs of the family. The Epiphany Ladies Guild as part of their charity offers a Mercy Meal for families at the Parish Center following the interment. Epiphany of our Lord cemetery are two portions of Fairfax Memorial Park. Parishioners who are interested in purchasing cemetery plots should see Deacon Peter Turko.

Byzantine Catholic Mission of Montgomery County Maryland – Divine Liturgy Sunday 10:00 AM. Epiphany Mission Chapel 9301 Warfield Road, Gaithersburg, MD. Phone (301) 482-0282.

LITURGY AND LIFE

Please remember in prayer: Msgr. George Dobes, Ed Gubanich, Caroline Zurun, John Vernoski, Marge Rusnak, Steve Seman, Damon Seman, Jack Figel, Jessica Polink, John Anthon, Kimberly Snow, Michael Maskarinec, Michael Hamas, Michele Horosko, and Thomas Soyka. Please pray for these relatives and friends of our parishioners: Eileen Gray, Mike Shuster, Greg Starr, Florence Kunder, Kelly Kunder, Francine O’Leary, Russell Plasha, Margaret Hospodar, John Ryaby III, Guillermina Donalson, Steve Smith, Caleb Joseph Lugo, *Mary Catherine Bishop, Samuel Gaush, Joshua Bacigalupi, Dr. John Feola, Lisa Fazio Rhodes, Jayden Ramos Jimenez, James Bacigalupi, and Larry Dowdy.

Prayers for our Parishioners. The particular Law of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church directs that “the pastor is to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for the people of the parish entrusted to him on Sundays and days of precept (holydays of obligation) (canon 294). This liturgy intention for parishioners is “For the Intention of Parishioners.” The faithful who attend the Divine Liturgy for the parishioners participate, according to their state, in praying for that intention. We can continue to pray for our parishioners by several parishioners in our daily prayers each week. This week please remember parishioners Michael and Emily Strickland, Robert and Jennifer Strickland & family, Joel and Michelle Susco, Thomas and Nancy Susco, David and Rebecca Sweda, Helena Tanner, John Tanner, and from the Mission, Sheri and Edward Fogle & family.

Saint Mary of Egypt. On the Fifth Sunday of the Great Fast, our venerable mother Mary of Egypt is commemorated and presented to Christ’s Faithful as a model of repentance and Christian asceticism. Her commemoration is April 1st, the day of her passing. It is likely that the Church moved her commemoration to the Fifth and final Sunday of the Great Fast as an encouragement to repentance, even at the Eleventh Hour. Her encounter during the Great Fast with the monk, Zosimos, to whom she told her story and who brought her Holy Communion, was the way by which her story was shared. St. Sophronius, patriarch of Jerusalem, wrote her Life, which was read this past Thursday at the Great Canon of St. Andrew of Crete.

Lazarus Saturday. At the conclusion of the Great Fast and before Great Week begins, Lazarus Saturday and Palm Sunday form a two-day interlude of two feasts. The Holy Land monks who would go into the Judean wilderness for forty days in imitation of the Lord would return to their monasteries on this weekend to observe Great Week and Pascha. Lazarus is a prefiguring of the Lord’s resurrection and anticipation of the resurrection of the righteous at the Second Coming. The Lord’s words to Martha and through Martha to us announce His authority of life and death. “I am the resurrection and the life, whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live.” The feast, through the gospel account from St. John appointed to be read, clearly sets out the two natures of Jesus Christ, human and divine. As man, Jesus weeps at the tomb of Lazarus while as God, Jesus raises His friend from the dead. This dogmatic truth of the two natures of Jesus Christ is intended to be kept in mind through all elements of Great Week: The Passion, Crucifixion, and keeping Sabbath in the Tomb. Matins and Liturgy of Lazarus Saturday have elements of a Sunday celebration on a Saturday. Lazarus Saturday was also a day when baptisms took place. The vestments are white, a sign of the resurrection, or green, as a sign of new life.

Guarding the Tomb. Each year on Great Friday and Great Saturday, parishioners guard the tomb of the Lord. A sign-up sheet is available on the bulletin board in the Narthex. For questions, please see Ed Gubanich.

Resurrection Candles. If you would like to offer an Easter candle in remembrance of a departed loved one, the intention of a living loved one, or a special intention, please visit the Parish Office Monday through Friday 10-4, email your intentions to epiphanyofourlord3420@gmail.com, or call 703 573 3986. Most candles can be offered for $10. A few candles are $20. Checks or cash and your intention's request may be sent in a sealed envelope marked "Attention Jamie" and put in the collection basket. All requests for candles must be received no later than April 11, 2025.

Pussy Willows. Pussy Willows are in bud. Those parishioners who have pussy willows and supply them for our parish to use on Palm Sunday or would like to begin to are asked to check your plants for any sign of budding. We are told that the correct way to cut them is to wait until almost all the branches have budded and before the buds go green to cut them. The church has a receptacle at the base of the stairs in the chapel lower level for your pussy willow donation. Please bring them this Friday or as late as Saturday morning.

Lenten Prayer. Presanctified Divine Liturgies are Wednesdays and Fridays at 7:30 PM during the Great Fast.

Lenten Fast. Wednesdays and Fridays during the Great Fast are days of abstinence, that is, no meat or meat products are consumed. Those who have special needs should see the pastor who can mitigate the fast to pious practices or release from the precepts of the fast. St. Basil the Great gave the reason for the Fast: "If Eve had fasted from the Tree, we would not have to keep the fast now." (About Fasting 2.2).
